A TRIBUTE

Home At Last

Around God's Heaven, no doubt she's singing,
With a stronger hand, the bells are a-ringing,
News of wondrous happiness bringing,
Mary, You're Home At Last!

On the crystal walls, a Golden Sunshine's beaming,
Angels arrayed in magnificent splendor a-gleaming;
Love, like a river of joy is a-streaming,
Mary, You're Home At Last!

Never did you refuse to lend a helping hand;
No matter what the plight, you'd always take a stand,
Ne'er did you tire while upon this strand.
Mary, You're Home At Last!

And though today our hearts are saddened,
CHRIST, Himself, for certain is gladdened
You, around, His throne, in your robe have been cladded
MARY, YOU'RE HOME AT LAST!
