Virginia McQueen

Born October 14, 1928 in Meriwether County, South Carolina to Isaiah and the late Carrie Julia Key, Virginia was the oldest of four daughters. She attended Homestead Elementary and Goulds Junior High School in Dade County, Florida. She graduated from Carver High School in Miami, Florida and Paine College in Augusta, Georgia where she received her Bachelor’s Degree in Education.

Virginia gave her life to Christ at an early age at Spring Grove Baptist Church in South Carolina. In later years, she was a founding member of the Belle-Terrace Presbyterian Church where she served as Treasurer, Elder and a member of the Margee Barbee Daytime Circle.

Virginia had an extensive work history in Richmond and Burke Counties in Georgia. Her professional career spanned thirty-three years, teaching at Waynesboro Elementary, Clara Jenkins Elementary, Bayville Elementary and Wilkinson Gardens Elementary.

Preceding her in death is her husband, Henry B. McQueen; mother, Carrie Julia Key; grandson, Ché Rains; sister, Annie “Murdell” Dorsett.

She leaves to mourn her two daughters, Karie “Kay” Rains and Anita McQueen of Augusta, Georgia; one son, Michael McQueen of Marietta, Georgia; two stepdaughters, Hilda McQueen of Lawrence, Massachusetts and Christine Elaine McQueen-Ward of Macon, Georgia; one stepson, Charles McQueen of Augusta, Georgia; ten grandchildren, Kimberly Ybarra (Aaron), Brian McQueen, Yolanda Taylor, Kerteshia Taylor, Sinaris Taylor, Eric McQueen, Kelvin Ward, Jr., Demetrius Ward, Nazareth Ward, Joseph Ward; father, Isaiah Key of Homestead, Florida; sisters, LeVessie Davis of Florida City, Florida and Dorothy Key Zeigler of Atlanta Georgia; sister-in-law, Sarah Deas of Columbia, South Carolina and Alma Reed (Willie James) of Aynor, South Carolina and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Tribute
Remembering My Aunt

Looking back through the years when I think of you, "Aunt V" what first comes to my mind is your generosity.

I remember things you gave me:
a stuffed animal that I adored;
a leather vest that you made me; advise I didn’t ignore.

I remember your delicious food for which we’d give you praise.
Your yams and dressing were such a blessing on gatherings and holidays.

Because of all the seeds you’ve sown in essence, your presence will live on through memories made and the love you gave.
The impact of your life was strong.

I have assurance that you’re at peace.
I’m thankful that your pain has ceased.
I’m comforted that you’ll be seen again.
