ONE-ACT PLAYS

(Continued from page 2) - to present the play. The story is based on an old law case involving a son who plotted to murder his father, using a nominee to act as the servant. The plot called for the servant, Tom Horton, to pretend to be the father. The plan was carried out, and the servant, Tom Horton, took over the role of the father. The play was presented by the Phi Omega social sorority.
